ORDER

KAJI, J, A.:

The applicant, Ikoï Sugaje, was charged with and convicted of what would appear to be unnatural offence contrary to section 154 (1) (a) of the Penal Code Cap. 16, as amended by the Sexual offences Special Provisions Act No.4 of 1998. He was sentenced to 30 years imprisonment and 10 strokes. He was aggrieved. However he was late to lodge his appeal in time. He applied in the High Court for extension of time but his application was dismissed for failure to show good cause for the delay, and the likelihood of losing the intended appeal in the event the application would succeed as he had pleaded guilty to the offence charged and the sentence imposed is the minimum. The applicant was aggrieved. However instead of lodging an appeal against that decision, he filed this application for extension of time to lodge his appeal in the High Court. This is not proper. For that reason this application is not properly before the Court. It is hereby struck out.

DATED at DODOMA this 14th day of June, 2007.
